ACQUISITION of NSI TECHNOLOGY PTY LTD

RXP Services Limited (RXP) is pleased to announce that it has entered into a binding agreement to acquire NSI Technology Pty Ltd (NSI).

Since 1999, NSI has provided technology services across the globe assisting both SMB and enterprise organisations by supplying experienced technology consultants, infrastructure experts, application developers and project delivery personnel.

RXP Chief Executive Officer, Ross Fielding stated:

“As we continue to implement our strategy of strengthening our technology verticals and building on our geographical presence, we are very pleased to have NSI joining the RXP team.

NSI have a terrific track record of delivering outstanding results for its long standing clients and partners. This acquisition will increase RXP’s presence in the Sydney region; it will strengthen our CRM and Infrastructure services capabilities and also provide a new mobile applications capability set.

We are looking forward to integrating NSI into the broader RXP team and I am excited by the opportunities this will provide” He said.

Commenting on the acquisition Managing Director of NSI, Ramon Ali stated:

“We are thrilled to be joining RXP and to be part of building and growing a larger and even more successful ICT services business. RXP provides us with a great opportunity to build on what has been achieved at NSI over the past 13 years.

We are really looking forward to being part of the RXP team and playing a key role in this phase of the company’s journey” He said.
